Crossing Mountains & Seas
by Orchid Ensemble and Aeriosa
July 11th, 2019 | The Port Theatre | 7:30 PM

Setting the story within an online role-playing game, Crossing Mountains & Seas blends the sense of breath in Asian traditions with the abstraction in art forms; fusing aerial dance, contemporary dance, cross - cultural music, and interactive multimedia projection. The characters travel between the ancient and modern worlds, the east and the west, and the reality and our imagination.

Flicker
by Dancers of Damelahamid
July 13th, 2019 | The Port Theatre | 7:30 PM

Flicker is a wise and dreamlike tale that highlights the diversity and complexity of contemporary Indigenous identities. The performance tells a story of a young man who sets out on a hero's quest to find his true potential. Through rituals, beings with supernatural powers guide the young man on a journey of discovery that changes him forever.
