ABOUT NANAIMO

The City of Nanaimo is a vibrant and growing regional centre on the east coast of Vancouver Island with a population of over 97,600 residents.

With its large protected harbour, Nanaimo is referred to as the Harbour City making it one of two major gateways to Vancouver Island and positioning Nanaimo as a key service and transportation hub for a regional population of 360,000 people throughout Central and Northern Vancouver Island.

GOVERNANCE

The City of Nanaimo is governed by a Mayor and eight Councillors who are elected for a four-year term. Members of the current City Council were elected on October 20, 2018.

City Council is responsible for local government leadership and decision-making. Their responsibilities include establishing and implementing the priorities of the City of Nanaimo and for overseeing the overall administration of civic business.

ABOUT THE PLAN

At the beginning of each term in office, Nanaimo's Mayor and Council set their Strategic Plan, identifying the vision and priorities of the City of Nanaimo, which in turn, lays the foundation for the development of work plans for City departments.

The Strategic Plan is reviewed regularly during Council's term to assess progress. As strategic priorities move to an operational level, and are accomplished, Council develops new priorities. This living document provides a clear roadmap, focusing resources and energies on priority projects and initiatives that benefit the people who live, work, play, visit and invest in our spectacular city.

VISION

To be a community that is livable, environmentally sustainable and full of opportunity for all generations and walks of life.

STRATEGIC THEMES

Four strategic themes were identified and highlighted by Nanaimo City Council as key areas of focus for the duration of their term in office.
