John Howard Society Rental Supplement Programs and Supplements Overview:

The Nanaimo Region John Howard Society is resourced to provide 70 ongoing subsidies through 3 BC Housing and Canada Housing Benefit supplement programs, as well as 17 active participants with subsidies through the City of Nanaimo and support through our Housing First program. These supplement programs come with operational support to help identify eligible participants, find housing and help them maintain housing stability. These supports can include helping participants access supports for education, employment, cultural services, mental and physical health, as well as substance use options.
