A By-Law for the prevention of cruelty to animals

Whereas it is deemed expedient to make provision for the prevention of cruelty to animals in the City of Honolulu.

Be it therefore enacted by the Municipal Council of the City of Honolulu as follows:-

- 1 Any person ill-using or mistreating any animal or animals in any manner whatsoever, whether by negligently omitting properly to feed the same, beating, over-driving or using the same when infirm, lame, or suffering, or by overloading the same, shall be subject to the penalties of this By-Law
- 2 Any person guilty of an infraction of any of the provisions of this by-law shall, on summary conviction before the Police Magistrate or any Justice of the Peace having jurisdiction over offences against the by-laws of the City of Honolulu, forfeit and pay over a penalty not exceeding Twenty dollars together with the costs of conviction, to be levied by distress of the goods and chattels of the persons so violating this by-law, and in case such goods and chattels shall prove insufficient to satisfy such penalty and costs, then by imprisonment of such persons for any term not exceeding three calendar months.
- 3 This by-law may be cited for all purposes as the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals By-Law 1900

Passed by the Municipal Council on the 12th November 1900
Reconsidered and finally adopted by the Municipal Council on the 19th December 1900
