

DATE OF MEETING NOVEMBER 7, 2022

AUTHORED BY SHEILA GURRIE, CHIEF ELECTION OFFICER

SUBJECT 2022 OFFICIAL ELECTION RESULTS

OVERVIEW

Purpose of Report:

To provide Council with the official 2022 General Election Results.

BACKGROUND

The Local Government Act, section 158, states that the Chief Election Officer must submit a report of the official election results for an election by voting within 30 days after declaring the official election results. The official election results were declared on October 19, 2022.

DISCUSSION

Attached are the official results of the General Local Election held October 15, 2022, to elect a Mayor and eight Councillors for the City of Nanaimo. Based on the final results of the election the following individuals have been elected for the four year term commencing November 7, 2022.

Mayor:

Leonard Eugene Krog

Councillors:

Paul Manly

Sheryl Dawn Armstrong

Ben Geselbracht

Ian Thorpe

Erin Colleen Hemmens

Janice Perrino

Tyler James Brown

Hilary Eastmure

CONCLUSION

The General Local Election was held October 15, 2022. There were 18,664 ballots cast out of 77,219 eligible voters, producing a 24.2% turnout.

SUMMARY POINTS

- The Local Government Act, section 158, states that the Chief Election Officer must submit a report of the official election results for an election by voting within 30 days after declaring the official election results.
- The official election results were declared on October 19, 2022.
- There were 18,664 ballots cast out of 77,219 eligible voters, producing a 24.2% turnout.

ATTACHMENTS

Attachment A: Declaration of Official Results

Attachment B: Election Vote Results |

Submitted by:]

Sheila Gurrie,
Chief Election Officer |