

Central Vancouver Island Japanese-Canadian Society

1

Non profit organization actively promotes Japanese culture and social justice in the Central Vancouver Island area with the purpose to:

1. cooperate on matters of concern to the Japanese Canadian community, and to undertake collective action for the betterment of its social and cultural well-being.
2. provide opportunities for members of the Japanese Canadian community, their families and friends to meet socially several times per year.
3. promote a better understanding and appreciation of our Japanese cultural heritage and expose others to the culture.
4. promote Human Rights, a multicultural Canada and stand in allyship alongside all marginalized people.
