ATTACHMENT B

Summary of Protection Policies from Other Municipalities – For Tenants of Rental Apartment Buildings

Note: The policies listed below are required as a condition of redevelopment of a rental apartment building (typically at strata conversion or rezoning). Provincial Bill 16 allows municipalities to adopt a 'tenant protection bylaw' that could contain similar protections (as listed below) at the time of development permit, strata conversion, and/or building/demolition permit, as well as a condition of rezoning.

| Municipality | Policy Title           | Brief Overview   |
|--------------|------------------------|--|
| City of      | Manufactured Home      | Communication Plan - Notification requirements to inform tenants of the development application process.             |
| Revelstoke   | Park Redevelopment,    | Tenant Relocation Plan - Assistance in finding new affordable accommodation.   |
|              | Residential Tenant     | Right of First Refusal - Applicant to offer a right of first refusal for new unit on the property.                   |
|              | Protection, and Strata | Other – Applicant may provide new below market housing units on site for eligible displaced tenants (with            |
|              | Conversion Policy      | Housing Agreement secured on title) or a contribution to the Housing Legacy Reserve Fund.                            |
|              | (2023)                 |  |
| City of      | Tenant Relocation      | Communication Plan – Mandatory ongoing notification and tenant meeting requirements throughout the                   |
| Vancouver    | and Protection Policy  | development application process. Interim and final report required to be submitted to the City to demonstrate        |
|              | (updated in June       | all tenant protection requirements have been met, prior to issuance of occupancy for new units on the                |
|              | 2024)                  | property.  |
|              |                        | Tenant Relocation Plan – Assistance in finding new equally affordable accommodation. Three reasonable                |
|              |                        | and affordable options are to be provided to each tenant.  |
|              |                        | Right of First Refusal – Applicant to offer a right of first refusal for new unit on the property, with 20% discount |
|              |                        | off starting market rents, or a unit in another building.  |
|              |                        | Financial Compensation – Applicant to pay between 4-24 months rent depending on length of tenancy.                   |
|              |                        | Owner may need to offset relocation costs.   |
|              |                        | Other – Extra requirements for tenants being displaced in certain areas such as Broadway Plan area, and              |
|              |                        | Transit Oriented Areas. There are also extra requirements when tenants in non-market housing are being               |
|              |                        | displaced, and for vulnerable tenants (i.e. seniors or persons with disability).                                     |
| City of      | Tenant Relocation      | Communication Plan – Mandatory ongoing notification and tenant meeting requirements.                          |
| Coquitlam    | Policy (2021)          | Tenant Relocation Plan – Relocation plan and a relocation coordinator is required.                                   |
|              |                        | Right of First Refusal - Applicant to offer a right of first refusal for new unit on the property.                   |
|              |                        | Financial Compensation – To be provided based on length of tenancy. Moving assistance to be provided                 |
|              |                        | based on number of bedrooms and is paid by a one-time flat rate.   |
|              |                        | Other – Separate requirements for tenants displaced from non-market units.   |

| Municipality | Policy Title             | Brief Overview   |
|--------------|--------------------------|--|
| City of      | Tenant Assistance        | Communication Plan – Mandatory ongoing notifications and tenant meeting requirements.                                |
| Burnaby      | Policy (2022)            | Tenant Relocation Plan – Tenant relocation coordinator is required to provide assistance in finding new              |
| ,     | ·····, (-·,              | affordable accommodation. Three reasonable and affordable options are to be provided to each tenant. Extra           |
|              |                          | support for vulnerable tenants must be provided.   |
|              |                          | Right of First Refusal - Applicant to offer a right of first refusal for new unit on the property.                   |
|              |                          | Financial Compensation – Applicant to pay lump sum payment to tenant or 'top-up' increase of new unit rent           |
|              |                          | rate for a specific time. Moving assistance must be provided based on number of bedrooms and is paid as a            |
|              |                          | one-time flat rate.  |
|              |                          | Other – Applicant to provide bonding at the beginning of the application process to ensure requirements are          |
|              |                          | met.   |
| City of      | Tenant Relocation | Communication Plan – Mandatory ongoing notifications and tenant meeting requirements. Tenant relocation              |
| Langley      | Policy (2024)            | website required. Final tenant relocation report required as condition of demolition of building.                    |
|              |                          | Tenant Relocation Plan – Tenant relocation coordinator is required to provide assistance in finding new              |
|              |                          | affordable accommodation. Three reasonable and affordable options are to be provided to each tenant. Extra           |
|              |                          | support for vulnerable tenants must be provided (i.e. seniors, disability).  |
|              |                          | Right of First Refusal - Applicant to offer a right of first refusal for new unit on the property at rent set at 20% |
|              |                          | below average, or purchase of unit at 15% discount of purchase price.  |
|              |                          | Financial Compensation – Applicant to pay lump sum payment to tenant or 'top-up' increase of new unit rent           |
|              |                          | rate for a specific time. Moving assistance must be provided based on number of bedrooms and is paid by a            |
|              |                          | one-time flat rate. Compensation is to be paid out at the time of termination of tenancy in either cash and/or       |
|              |                          | free rent per the tenant's preference.   |
| District of  | Tenant Assistance        | Communication Plan – Mandatory ongoing notifications to tenants. Submit a tenant relocation status report            |
| Saanich      | Policy (2023)            | before the issuance of any building permits pertaining to the site.  |
|              |                          | Tenant Relocation Plan – Tenant relocation coordinator is required to provide assistance in finding new       |
|              |                          | affordable accommodation. Extra support for vulnerable tenants must be provided (i.e. seniors, disability).          |
|              |                          | Right of First Refusal - Applicant to offer a right of first refusal for new unit on the property at rent set at 20% |
|              |                          | below average.   |
|              |                          | Financial Compensation – Applicant to pay lump sum payment to tenant or 'top-up' increase of new unit rent           |
|              |                          | rate for a specific time. Moving assistance must be provided based on number of bedrooms and is paid by a            |
|              |                          | one-time flat rate. Compensation is to be paid out at the time of termination of tenancy in either cash and/or       |
|              |                          | free rent per the tenant's preference.   |
|              |                   | Other - Extra support for vulnerable tenants must be provided.   |