

Attachment A--Additional Product Information

	Retail Products Found with Plants of Concern (Invasive Plant Council of BC list)	Context / Local impact
Often Found in locally available Wildflower Mixes	 Anthriscus sylvestris (Wild chervil) Arctium minus (Common burdock) Bur Chervil (Bur parsley) Centaurea Cyanus (Bachelor's Buttons/Cornflower) Centaurea diffusa (Diffuse Knapweed) Centaurea montana (Mountain bluet) Centaurea stoebe (Spotted knapweed) Digitalis purpurea (Foxglove) Echium vulgare (Blueweed) Gypsophila paniculata (Babies Breath) Hieracium aurantiacum (Orange Hawkweed) Lecanthemum vulgare (Oxeye daisy) Symphytum officinale (Common comfrey) 	 currently impacting Loudon Park and walkway Impacts pastures and farms Weed in wildflower fields & meadows Weed in meadows & wild fields widely seen Weed in pastures & farmland, toxic to cattle Impactful weed on grazing lands & farm pastures. widely seen Often grown in home vegetable gardens to add nutrients to soil, attract pollinators, used as much.
Sometimes used in hanging baskets available locally	 Lamium galeobdolon (Yellow archangel) 	 currently impacting several parks--especially in shaded areas
	 Anchusa officinalis (Common bugloss) Berteroa incana (Hoary alyssum) Bromus tectorum (Cheatgrass) Butomus umbellatus (Flowering rush) Carum carvi (Wild caraway) Chondrilla juncea Cirsium palustre (Marsh plume thistle) Cynoglossum officinale (Hound's tongue) Daphne laureola (Spurge-Laurel) Daucus carota Dipsacus fullonum (Teasel) Elaeagnus angustifolia (Russian olive) Euphorbia esula Euphorbia myrsinites (Myrtle spurge) Hedera helix (English ivy) 	 centres. Very invasive, impacts forests & is a skin irritant. D. Odora & D. Cheorum are ornamental and highly used in gardens. Great scent. Widely seen in local parks with forest cover such as Colliery Dam. Queen Anne's lace Many non-invasive Euphorbia are sold in garden centres There are some non-invasive species & cultivars sold in garden

sale in local nurseries or	Hypochaeris radicata (Hairy Cat's-ear) Hysynamus niger (Black henbane) Ilex aquifolium (English holly) Iris pseudacorus (Yellow flag iris) Impatiens glandulifera (Himalayan balsam) Impatiens parviflora (Smallflower touch-me-not) knautia arvensis (Field Scabious) Lepidium draba (Hoary cress) Linaria vulgaris (Yellow toadflax) Lysimachia punctata (Yellow Loosetrife) Myriophyllum spicatum (Eurasian watermilfoil) Nymphaea alba (European waterlily) Nymphaea odorata (Fragrant waterlily) Nymphoides pelata (Yellow floating heart) Potentilla recta Reynoutria japonica Robinaia pseudoacasa (Black locust) Rubus armeniacus (Himalayan blackberry) Sedum acre (Goldmoss stonecrop) Senecio jacobaea (Tansy ragwort) Tamarisk spp. (Tamarisk / Salt cedar) Tripleurospermum erforatum (Schnless chamomile) Vinca mnor (Common periwinkle)	Weed in farms & pastures. Toxic to humbas & animals if ingested Some non-invasive cultivars are sold in garden centres. Sulphur cinquefoil Not as invasive in BC (more invasive in the south). Less invasive cultivars are sold in garden centres as "Purple Robe" & "Frisia" Invasive, but many non-invasive species of Sedum are sold. Sedums aer a common landscape plant. Often sold in garden centres and nurseries and widely found in many local parks including Neck Point Park
Not found for sale in local nurseries or garden centres	Ailanthus altissima (Tree of heaven) Alliaria petiolata (Garlic mustard) Cirsium arvense (Canada thistle) Cytisus scoparius (Scoth broom) Heracleum mantegazzianum (Giant Hogweed) Lamium purpureum (Purple deadnettle) Lythrum salicaria (Purple loosestrife) Onopordum acanthium (Scotch thistle) Persicaria wallichii (Himalayan knotweed) Reynoutria sachalinensis (Giant Knotweed) Reyoutria x bohemia (Bohemian knotweed) Tanacetum vulgare (Common tansy) Ulex europaeus (Gorse)	widely impacting local parks, public lands, and private property widely impacting local parks, public lands, and private property Several public locations are being treated regularly Impacts pastures & farms