HIS MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of British Columbia, enacts as follows:

Definitions

1 In this Act:

“applicant” means a person who is applying to a local government for approval of a development project;

“development permit area” means a development permit area designated under the Local Government Act;

“local government” means

- (a) the board of a regional district,
- (b) the council of a municipality, including the City of Vancouver,
- (c) local trust committee as defined in the Islands Trust Act, or
- (d) any other prescribed body;

“official community plan” has the same meaning as in the Local Government Act;

“PGA professional” means a registrant in good standing of a regulatory body set out in Schedule 1 to the Professional Governance Act;

“submission” means a technical submission that is required to be provided under a development project approval process established by a local government in respect of land use;

“superintendent” means the superintendent appointed pursuant to section 4 of the Professional Governance Act.

Acceptance of certified submission

- 2 A local government must accept, as meeting permit or bylaw requirements, any submission certified by a PGA professional acting within their regulated scope of practice, unless
- (a) the submission is incomplete, or
  - (b) a complaint in respect of the submission has been made to the superintendent.

Resolution of dispute

- 3 Where a dispute arises between a PGA professional employed by a local government and a PGA professional retained by an applicant, the matter must be referred to the superintendent for resolution.

No limitation

- 4 Nothing in this Act limits a local government's ability to establish zoning bylaws, development permit areas or official community plans.

Peer review

- 5 A local government may not require a peer review of a submission that has been certified by a PGA professional, unless specifically authorized by the superintendent.

Building codes

- 6 Nothing in this Act affects the authority of the Province with respect to the establishment of building codes.

Liability of PGA professional

- 7 A PGA professional who has provided a certification referred to in section 2 or 5 is liable for damages resulting from any harm that is caused by reliance on the certification for the purposes of this Act.

Protection against actions

- 8 No legal proceeding for damages lies or may be commenced or maintained against a local government in respect of a submission certified by a PGA professional.

Regulations

- 9 (1) The Lieutenant Governor in Council may make regulations referred to in section 41 of the Interpretation Act.
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), the Lieutenant Governor in Council may make regulations to:
- (a) designate a local body as a local government for the purposes of this Act or the regulations;
  - (b) establish dispute resolution procedures;
  - (c) set timelines for development application processing.

Commencement

- 10 This Act comes into force by regulation of the Lieutenant Governor in Council or on the date that is three months after the date of Royal Assent, whichever is earlier.
